

Holiday Events in DFW

It's hard to believe the 2019 holiday season is upon us. Looking for holiday fun? Check out these events happening in November and December, and into January

Prairie Lights Drive-Through Holiday Light Park

Be dazzled by Prairie Lights as you drive through 4 million lights set along 2 miles of path. Half way through the drive get out of your car for a stop at Holiday Village where you will find food, gifts, Santa, Lighted Walk-Through Forest and a holiday theater spectacular. The finale of the show is the world's largest light tunnel. Open Thanksgiving Day to New Year's Eve.
5610 Lake Ridge Parkway Grand Prairie, TX 75052

The Gift Of Christmas Featuring The Living Nativity

December 7-8 and 11-15, 2019
Prestonwood Baptist Church, Plano Campus
The Gift of Christmas is a Prestonwood tradition and has become one of the highlights of the Christmas season, with thousands of guests attending every year. This visually stunning multimedia event is complete with special effects, a nearly 1,000-member cast and choir, live orchestra, flying angels and much more! It is complete with all your Christmas favorites, including the beautiful Living Nativity.

Dallas Zoo Lights Presented By Reliant

Nights shine brighter at the Dallas Zoo this holiday season! Dallas Zoo Lights Presented by Reliant is back and brighter than ever. ZooNorth transforms into a winter wonderland with over one million twinkling lights, realistic silk-covered lanterns in the shape of your favorite animals, plus even more light displays and festivities for the entire family! Zoo Lights opens on November 15 and continues on select nights until January 5.

Fort Worth Parade Of Lights

November 24, 2019, 6:00pm
Starts at Weatherford and Houston Streets in Fort Worth. The 37th edition of this Downtown Fort Worth signature event is themed, "The Sounds of the Season," and will feature music throughout the parade, including pre- and post- parade. Signature floats, giant illuminated balloons, local performing groups, community organizations and more. We hope you will continue this new tradition for the years to come!

Christmas At The Anatole

You don't have to travel to the North Pole to experience the magic of Christmas with a festive, holiday adventure. Peppermint Park is an immersive holiday experience, featuring children's games and activities, holiday shows, endless light displays, Santa Claus and much more. Take a magical train ride through the park, predict the weather with Jack Frost, enroll in Elf School and learn what it takes to be one of Santa's helpers, mail your letters to the North Pole or make holiday slime with the Grinch.

German Inspired Holiday Fun At Arlington's Texas Christkindl Market!

Back for 2019, the Texas Christkindl Market is bigger and better than ever! An Arlington favorite, the market will run from November 29 through December 22, 2019 at the North Plaza at Globe Life Field (next to Texas Live!) This delightful, FREE, family-friendly market, inspired by a cherished German tradition, features holiday gifts, decorations and music. Holiday shoppers will enjoy exclusive Käthe Wohlfahrt Christmas decorations and designs from the renowned Rothenburg ob der Tauber Christmas Village in Germany, as well as over 20 holiday vendors and food options. HOURS OF OPERATION: Sunday – Thursday, 11 a.m.-9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 11 a.m.-10 p.m.

Holiday At The Arboretum

From November 9 to December 31, the Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden will celebrate Holiday at the Arboretum. Features include the magnificent The 12 Days of Christmas outdoor exhibit, as well as close to 1 million lights throughout the garden at night, trimming the architecture of the historic homes and lighting the canopies overhead—including a 30-foot-tall tree at the center of the property. The outdoor exhibit features 25-foot-tall Victorian-style gazebos that come to life, depicting scenes from the traditional carol.
